Anzac Day at Mologa

On a balmy morning, a large crowd of past and present and interstate residents attended the Anzac Day service.

The service was presented by Marie Noelker, who spoke of the meaning and comradeship of the Australian and New Zealand soldiers in the trenches of Gallipoli. Then the school children from Pyramid Hill College, St Patrick’s Primary School and Creek Street Primary School (Bendigo) and descendants of the soldiers, laid wreaths at the Memorial.

Just as the last post was played a slight cool breeze sprang up for the moment and then as the flags were raised the Swan Hill train came through for the start of a new day.

World War 1 Army uniforms were on display thanks to Paul Monroe from Bendigo. Around the Memorial were photos of the soldiers whose names are listed on the Memorial.

After the service a BBQ breakfast was enjoyed by all.

Monday Night Netball

Blue and Pink kicked off the night with a close first quarter. After that Pink's game clicked and they opened up an unassailable lead and ran comfortably away with the game. Pink racked up their first win of the season. Pink on 67 goals to Blue's 16 goals.

In the second game the two undefeated sides went head to head. Purple flexed their muscle and came away with a commanding win. Purple on 50 goals to Red's 24 goals.

Rowan must be showing his age as at times he doesn't see the ball coming.

“Carol” by Patricia Highsmith

Therese was brought up in an institution and felt lost when trying to make a living in the real world. Her contact with Richard, though pleasant, seemed unsatisfactory. On the one hand he was romantically attracted to her, but Therese sensed a feeling of being inferior and that she was only an appendage to his way of living. One day, while working in the toy shop, a smartly dressed lady hesitated at her counter and Therese felt a sharp spark of interest. By a series of semi intentional events, they were drawn together. Richard had his suspicions, suggesting that Therese was young and naïve and being drawn into a relationship she did not understand. Carol, experienced in these things, took her on a trip away from home, leaving her adored daughter with a not very understanding husband.

Therese learned what it was like to live in a lesbian relationship, but then Carol had to return home. Leaving the car for Therese to continue, Carol flew back home while Therese had time to reflect on the situation and to realise that Carol had been in another relationship with Abigail, who was now a good friend. On returning home, Therese found out that Carol’s husband had filed for custody of her daughter. Confused that there was an emotional price to pay for being different, Carol admitted to Therese that part of the reason for their trip, was to warn her of the pitfalls of a lesbian relationship. However, the choice was not all negative and sometimes relationships can change to firm friendships.

This story has also been made into a film, starring Cate Blanchett. I learned of this part way through and the image of Cate came to my mind as I continued through the story, she seemed so perfect for the part.

Three stories of three situations of women going through hard times. Did I enjoy the books? Well, I am a bit of a Mrs. Fixit.. The situations presented seemed to be insoluble, yet the true story did have a happy ending, though the cost was high. I spent quite a lot of time pondering over similar real life dilemmas. It would be good to think there was an answer to all life’s problems, but most of us have to just soldier on, choosing as many best options as we can.

The afterword was interesting. Presented for publication in 1951, the book was rejected by her regular publisher. In 1952, when showed it to another publisher under a different title. The response was overwhelming. Patricia Highsmith had a huge response, particularly from young people, thanking her for putting a more positive light on gay relationships.

Lions Citizen of the Year
The Lions Club is calling for nominations for our Citizen of the Year 2016. Surely all the sporting clubs out there have tireless volunteers in the background, who do so much for the club. Closing date for nominations is Wednesday, 15th June. Nomination forms can be collected from the Newsagency.

Lions Market
Please come along to the Market on 14th May - we have great stalls, but sometimes out of town stall holders only come once and don’t come back, due to lack of support. We are open to anything - car boot sale out the front or a garage sale at the front.

Lions Christmas Cakes are still available at the Newsagency or Victoria Hotel.

The Lions BBQ Van has been very busy in town and out of town, which is great. Our next venture is to raise enough funds to install a fridge in the van., but it is very expensive.

Batteries & Specs - Don’t forget to save your old spectacles and batteries for the Lions Club. If you need batteries to be picked up, just give Bill Quinn a call - 5455 7521

Seniors News

A wonderful, but very wet day was had last Friday on our Wetlander Cruise. All the yummy scones (cooked on board) - you wanted to eat. Nice entertainment and very informative commentary by the driver/pilot (the fellow at the wheel!). Very pretty scenery. Then off to Barham for lunch - a very busy bakery, so some went to the Club. Thank you to the “kids” on the bus for putting seat belts on without being told, and behaving.

Next trip being planned - possibly to the Catalina Museum in Lake Boga and somewhere else in the area.

Movie Day Monday was the ‘Marigold Hotel’, funny, but sad in parts. Nice nibbles and afternoon tea (thanks Bernie).

Don’t forget Blumes Fashions - Monday, 23rd, Cards, Bingo and DVD days, also on the Agenda.

Next luncheon will be Thursday, 12th May note change due to unforeseen circumstances. Luncheon - $10 (2 courses) Cards - 500 - Kate & Peg won 5 games, Trevor & Jeanette 2. If you don’t get the cards, you don’t win.

Happy birthday to anyone having one.

You don’t have to be a Senior to join us at Cards, Movies, Bingo days, just come along for a bit of fun and a chat.

Invitation Day Bowls Tournament

The ladies took centre stage on the greens as they enjoyed the Invitation Day competition on Tuesday of this week. It was a great way to kick off the merry month of May. With fourteen teams playing it was just delightful to see so many happy women playing, laughing and joking. Teams entered from far and wide and included players from Moama, Lockington, Boort and Inglewood, as well as most clubs from our Northern District Association. Eventual winners on the day were as follows:

Overall Winners were a Cohuna Golf/Boort composite team (Katie Peace, Marj Mooney, Jo Maxted, and Lynette Cameron). Well done ladies, a sterling effort!

Runners Up from Inglewood (Brenda Jones, Margo Leitch, Bev Taig and Shirley Sloan. The winning teams both received generous awards from our major sponsors, Loddon Shire and Hair To Chat.

The raffle donated by Bettina’s Professional Care and Pyramid Hill Pharmacy Depot were supplemented with donations from Club members. Winners of the raffles were L. Appleby, N. and L. Whiteacre, M. Malone, J. Grills, L. Rowdy, V. Morris and L. Adams.

Lucky Lead was won by P. Crichton, Lucky Second won by D. Hill, Lucky Third won by R. Bibby and Lucky Skip won by N. Whiteacre.

Beautiful Chrysanthemum pots were given to lucky spot winners on each table and went to G. Teasdale, E. Whelan, J. Marshall, S. McGillivray, J. Grills, R. Bibby and M. Malone. Before the match game commenced, players rolled to the kitty and coin strategically placed on the greens and winners were P. Lyndon and N. Whiteacre. So there was an ample supply of treasures for players to take home with a grin of satisfaction on their faces.

The Pyramid Hill Club ladies served up a fabulous luncheon, quiche with salad for lunch, topped off with a sponge. This was followed by sandwiches and the most delectable array of desserts you can imagine for afternoon tea. The dessert course was the brain-child of Kate whose cooking kills would leave MKR contestants for dead, and had players gasping with pleasure as they came in from their games. A huge thanks to the catering Committee and all who helped with the preparation and serving of food for the day. The compliments were flowing.

Thanks must go to our sponsors, Loddon Shire and Hair To Chat, and also to the green keepers for the preparation of the greens. Lastly, a big ‘thank you’ to our Tournament Secretary, Jan Leed, for her untiring work in rounding up teams to play, and ensuring that the day went off smoothly. It was a good deal of work but with a very satisfying outcome – we can all feel proud that our small club can present such an impressive event.

The thought for the day: smiling exercises more muscles than doing push ups. If you do something give it 100% except if you are giving blood.

Notice to all members: don’t forget the Presentation Night next Friday, 13th May.

The Pre-school Committee are treating us to a divine meal. Cost for the night is $25 per person. It’s a 6:30 for 7:00 sit down.

The Seafood Tournament sponsored by Dave and Deb Domain has been scheduled for 22nd May – put this date in your diary for another good day out.

Congratulations to our hard working President -
Marie Noecker
On winning the 100 Up - it was a great game against Kate.
Pyramid Hill Netball & Football Club

This Saturday a pink ball will be the centre of attention on each court as the Pyramid Hill Football and Netball Club seek to raise awareness and funds for BCNA (Breast Cancer Network Association).

Raffle tickets will be sold on the day for $2 a ticket with balls being presented to the two winners at the conclusion of the A Grade and C Grade matches.

Mitchell Park will turn pink on Saturday! Please come along and enjoy our Pink afternoon tea as well, with the money also being donated to Breast Cancer.

The Pyramid Hill Netball Club will also raffle their Mother's Day prize. Tickets are available from all good netballers!

Happy Mother’s Day to all our mothers - those on and off the court.

Looking forward to seeing many faces at our Bags and Balls night this Saturday night at Mitchell Park!
